

BlumSafe Unveils the Frameless Sliding Concealment Mirror: A Sleek, Secure, and Stylish Solution for Home Security

Archdale, NC – January 17, 2025 – BlumSafe, a leading innovator in home security solutions, is thrilled to announce the launch of its latest product, the Frameless Sliding Concealment Mirror. This new addition to the BlumSafe family offers a sophisticated and functional way to hide your valuables in plain sight, combining security with style. The Mirror slides to the left or right to reveal a hidden BlumSafe or wall nook – concealment being the best form of security.

The Frameless Sliding Concealment Mirror is designed to seamlessly blend into any room decor with its sleek, frameless design. Measuring 20” x 47.5” and protruding only 2 inches from the wall’s surface, this mirror not only serves as a practical piece of home decor but also provides a hidden compartment for your BlumSafe or other valuables.

Key Features of the Frameless Sliding Concealment Mirror:

- Sleek and Functional Design: The mirror’s frameless design ensures it fits effortlessly into any room, providing a modern and stylish look.
- Easy Access and Secure Storage: The mirror features a magnetically-activated locking mechanism, ensuring your valuables remain securely hidden. Simply use the included magnetic key to unlock the mirror and slide it open.
- Bonus Hidden Cubby: In addition to concealing your BlumSafe, the mirror includes a hidden cubby for additional storage, perfect for items you want to keep out of sight but easily accessible.
- High-Quality Materials and Construction: Crafted with precision-machined HDPE plastic and a laminated MDF door, the mirror ensures durability and a premium feel every time you open and close it.

“We are excited to introduce the Frameless Sliding Concealment Mirror to our customers,” said Rob Blum, Founder & CEO of BlumSafe. “This product exemplifies our commitment to innovation and providing high-quality, secure solutions for home security. The Frameless Sliding Concealment Mirror not only enhances the aesthetic appeal of any room but also offers a practical and secure way to hide your BlumSafe and enclosed valuables.”

The Frameless Sliding Concealment Mirror is now available for purchase on the BlumSafe website. For more information, visit BlumSafe.com
